California Dreamin'

Explore the four galleries of the PLACE, PEOPLE, PROMISE, and POLITICS at the Golden State Museum. Be sure to read the information signs, use the flipbooks, and watch videos to answer the following questions. Most of all...enjoy yourself while you discover the "California dream."

PLACE GALLERY - 2ND FLOOR

1. Land Exhibit: Name the four physical regions of California. _____

Which region do you live in? _____ How is it different from the other regions?

2. Floods, earthquakes, and fires! After examining the Natural Disasters exhibit, create a headline about one natural disaster for the front page of a newspaper. Try to captivate readers' interest.

3. Locate the 12-foot floor map of California. Observe the changes for one of the following topics: settlement, transportation, or water. What is one fact that you learned and found interesting?

PEOPLE GALLERY: 2ND FLOOR

4. Hop aboard the vintage bus to hear the stories of people coming to California. Describe one person's journey or experience.

5. Herbal Shop: Why did the Yee family come to California in 1850? _____
How did they find success in California? _____

6. Listen to the Californians in the TV Shop.  What is your California Dream?

PROMISE GALLERY - 1ST FLOOR

7. What is meant by the phrase, the “Continuing Gold Rush”?

8. What is one promise that you think is the most important to the growth of California? Why? (Refer to the exhibits throughout the Promise Gallery)

9. Look at the 70-foot ceiling mural. Find two images or symbols that represent California and tell what the symbols represent. Example: The grapevine represents the California countryside.

POLITICS GALLERY - 1ST FLOOR

10. Locate the 1849 Constitution of California and the revision of the State Constitution written in 1879. Read the plaque on the right wall titled “Aftermath.” What are two unique facts that you found out about the history of our State Constitutions?

11. Open some drawers in the Promise/Politics Pavilion. Describe one document or artifact that you found and tell why it is important.

12. By touring this gallery, you will discover ways people influence governmental policies. What are two things people might do to influence political decisions? Be sure to visit Posey’s Café (push button 2, “Children’s Choice” on the jukebox) and visit the Forum.
